West Haven Days

It is that time of year again when we celebrate our nation and city being founded. Events begin on June 23 with a free prime rib dinner for current residents only. Tickets must be picked up by June 9th. Sadly I'm aware of some picking up more tickets than reside at the address shown. Please keep this for its intended purpose which is a special dinner for residents of our city on our 20th anniversary. I hope to see you there for the dinner, parade (yes, candy will be thrown out as always), breakfast, athletic events, games, car show, rodeo and great fireworks at 10PM on Saturday night.

Elections

Our city recorder is attaching information regarding this year's elections. Three, four-year city council positions will be on the ballot this fall and registration is in July.

Flood Watch

Last month I told of heroic efforts by several companies who came to our rescue. I hope and believe we are as prepared as we can be. The next 30 days or so are going to be anxious moments for many along the river. I hope the water stays under control and again thank those who have helped us prepare for the snow melt.

Cemetery

As mentioned last month, a seven member advisory board has been created to give their recommendations to the governing body, the city council. They have had one meeting and will be moving forward with their advice to the Council. Members of the board are willing to give their time and I am very grateful to them for their service. The Chair, Sharon Bolos, has a great group to work with consisting of Don Stokes, Bryce Kendrick, Bryan Harmes, Scott Venstra, Brock Randall, and Venessa Murray.

Budget

Early May, I met at length with the city treasurer working on the proposed budget for 2012 which I then presented to the city council on May 3rd for their approval. Public notice has been given for a public hearing on the matter on June 15th. Once again the budget calls for ZERO city property tax. We can't raise what we don't have!

I hear summer is coming.
I hope summer is coming.
